

First Nations Student Advisory Group Consultation Meeting

Yaama, everyone

Thank you for registering for the student community consultation meeting for the establishment of the First Nations Student Advisory Group.

This is a gathering of students identifying as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander from across New South Wales. The student advisory group will assist in advising the Arts Unit on events, policies, and programs, with a view to ensuring the safety and inclusion of First Nations perspectives in the design and implementation process.

We have over 70 students registered to participate! Students are either attending in person at The Arts Unit or joining online through Microsoft Teams.

We've put together some information below to support your participation in the meeting.

Should you required support on the day or have enquiries please contact Michelle Murphy on 0425 384 484 or Leisa Hicks on 0417 231 602.

We look forward to working with you next week!

Meeting tips for successful participation

- Find a suitable space in your school uninterrupted.
- Schools with multiple students attending are encouraged to participate as a school group, using school video conferencing facilities where all students can see the screen and access the microphone to speak.
- Keep your microphone muted unless it is your turn to speak.
- Live captions for this session will be enabled. Individuals can turn this feature on or off as required.
- We encourage schools to test their equipment prior to the meeting to ensure everything is working. Should you require support on the day please contact Michelle Murphy on 0425 384 484 or Leisa Hicks on 0417 231 602. We will have Michael Cupitt from the digital team with us to support this meeting.

Refreshments

Students are encouraged to bring a bottle of water with them on the day and a snack.
